Notes on the completion of sections 3 and 4

1. Lump sum death benefit

- (a) You may nominate any one or more persons or organisations to receive this. You must use the name of a person or organisation and not your 'Estate' or the title 'Executor' or 'Administrator'.
- (b) Any nomination will be revoked automatically by the death of the person(s) nominated or by your later marriage, civil partnership, divorce or dissolution of a civil partnership. If you wish your original nomination to stand you must confirm this in writing to The Pensions Trust.
- (c) You may change your nomination at any time. Please obtain a further form from The Pensions Trust if you wish to do so.
- (d) The Scottish Housing Associations' Pension Scheme Committee has discretion over who is to receive the benefit and, in exceptional circumstances, where no information is available, reserves the right to retain all or part of the value of the benefit within the assets of the Scheme.

2. Survivor's pension

- (a) You do not have to nominate anyone now. If you wish to do so later or you wish to change your nomination, please contact The Pensions Trust.
- (b) Please provide us with the name of your nominated survivor. This pension may be shared in the circumstances of the following paragraph.
- (c) An amount equivalent to the widow(er)'s Guaranteed Minimum Pension (GMP) (if any) and Reference Scheme Pension must be paid to a legal spouse or civil partner. Therefore, if you are legally married or have a legal civil partner you can allocate only the excess to someone other than your legal spouse or civil partner.
- (d) Any nomination will be revoked automatically by the death of the person nominated, or by your later marriage, civil partnership, divorce or dissolution of a civil partnership. If you wish your original nomination to stand you must confirm this in writing to The Pensions Trust.
- (e) As the choice of beneficiary has widened to the maximum permitted extent, it is important for you to exercise your right to nominate wherever possible. Eligibility will have to be confirmed before payment commences.
- (f) If on your death there is no valid nomination, the Scottish Housing Associations' Pensions Scheme Committee has discretion to pay the benefits to any eligible beneficiary but has the right to retain all or part of the benefit within the Scheme.
- (g) If on retirement you have no nominee and do not wish to name one, then you may retain the right to do so, or your pension can be enhanced.

3. Who can receive the survivor's pension?

- (a) Your spouse or civil partner.
- (b) Anyone who lives with you and shares the living expenses or anyone who is largely financially dependent on you. A child may only be nominated as detailed below.
- (c) You may nominate a child (of any age) who is disabled and is unable to earn a living (in this case the child would be paid the survivor's pension, but not the child's pension).
- (d) You may nominate a dependent child to receive the survivor's pension only up to the date he or she ceases to be treated as a 'Child' as described in the Trust Deed and Rules. In this case the child would receive the survivor's pension, but not the child's pension.
