As has been our practice for previous Forums, we are initially offering two places for each organisation. However, please note that if we receive a strong response from employers it may be necessary to restrict attendance to one representative from each employer. If this is the case we will contact any organisations who have initially submitted attendees.

If you would like to attend a Forum please complete the accompanying Application Form by saving the document and using the electronic fields provided. Please then email your Application Form to the following email address: paul.hannan@thepensionstrust.org.uk

All Application Forms will be acknowledged. Please contact Paul Hannan again, either by email or by direct line on 0113 394 2815, if you have not received an acknowledgement within 10 working days.
